

Miba – Facts & Figures

Miba is an international group that produces high-performance and technologically demanding power train components. Miba technology makes motor vehicles, trains, ships, aircraft and power plants more efficient, more powerful and more environmentally friendly.

Miba Headquarters:	Laakirchen, Austria (in the state of Upper Austria)
Sites in Austria:	Laakirchen, Vorchdorf, Roitham and Niklasdorf
Production Facilities Worldwide:	Austria, Slovakia, United States, China and Brazil
Sales Offices Worldwide:	Singapore, France, Germany and Italy
Business Units:	Miba Sinter Group: components for passenger car engines, transmissions and shock absorbers Miba Bearing Group: half shells, bushings and thrust washers Miba Friction Group: friction linings for brakes and clutches
Customers:	The international engine and automotive industry
Employees:	Approximately 2,700 (about 60% of whom work at the Austrian locations)
Expenditures:	5% of sales for R&D

Key Company Figures:

(in million €)	2008-09	2007-08
Sales	374.6	387.7
Engine bearings	160.4	159.3
Sintered components	135.4	156.3
Friction materials	76.5	68.6
Earnings before interest and taxes	34.5	27.6
Investments	43.1	36.0
Cash flow	61.4	53.6